

Florin Jianu

Vice-President – CNIPMMR (RO)

Florin Jianu was born in Slatina (Romania) on 30 December 1976. He graduated from the University of Bucharest, Faculty of Mathematics and attended the National School of Political and Administrative Studies Masters. Mr Jianu is the president of Romanian national council of SMEs (CNIPMMR). He is one of the most successful Romanian entrepreneur and the biggest supporter of business environment at national and European level, focused on innovative approaches and opportunities given to young people.

His current activity concerns the non-governmental sector dedicated to support the business environment and the policies and instruments development in order to support all the entrepreneurial activities. In 2014, for 10 months he was appointed as the minister for SMEs, business environment and tourism. The main results of his activity concern the most innovative law for SMEs, a business strategy for 2014-2020, a program dedicated to support young graduates to become employees. In the non-governmental sector, he was the President Young Entrepreneurs of the European Union (JEUNE) and the President of the Young Entrepreneurs Association from Romania (YEAR).

