

Alban Maggiar

President 2020-2021 – CPME (FR)

Alban Maggiar is President of SMEUnited (2020-2021). He is in charge of European Affairs in CPME, the French Confederation of small and medium-sized enterprises, since March 2015 and the chairman of EHPM (European federation of associations of Health Product Manufacturers) since March 2013.

Prior to that, he was President of SYNADIET, the French organisation that united the French food supplement industry from 2005 to February 2015. For 25 years, Alban Maggiar has been the head of the French company CARRARE Laboratory that specialises in yeasts, probiotics and botanical based food supplements.

He holds a Master's degree in Business Law, an Advanced Master's degree in Tax Law, and a Bachelor's degree in Literature. He also holds a qualification in the field of political science.

